REGISTERING RAPIDLY

Five Thousand Secure Their Papers at the El Reno Office.

COMING AND GOING.

Incoming and Outgoing Trains Crowded With People—Cattlemen Will Lose Some Stock by Removal of Pasture Fences.

El Reno, O. T., July 12.—More than 5000 people were registered Thursday. At this rate 80,000 may be registered by July 26, but it is doubtful whether the number will run as high as 50,000 here. Two thousand were registered at Lawton. The crowd here remains about the same size. Every incoming train brings hundreds, but the same train always takes away an equal number who have secured certificates.

A perfect system of organization has been effected by those in charge of the lines, and there is now no trouble whatever.

Large numbers continue to arrive overland, and every vacant lot in the residence portion is occupied by campers. The booths will remain open until July 26, but the bulk of the work will be finished this week, it is thought.

The cattlemen in the Indian country will not suffer by reason of the opening, as has been reported. Their grass leases have been held to Oct. 1, and the government will not eject them. Ample pasture lands have been provided for them in the southern part of the Kiowa country on the Texas line, where all the cattle have been moved.

Cattlemen who hold pasture lands in the reservation are somewhat disappointed at the provisions of the president's proclamation, as it virtually throws the country open to all settlers before Aug. 1, allowing all who draw claims to enter the reservation for the purpose of examining and selecting homestead claims. This will turn loose from 15,000 to 20,000 people to travel over the ranges, with all the fencing gone, will create trouble about handling the cattle left on open pasture land.

Negroes Running the Town.

Muskogee, I. T., July 12.—The mayor of Muskogee, a small town 11 miles northwest of here, has called on the federal authorities here to aid him in keeping the peace. Last week a negro was arrested and fined by the mayor for violating one of the town ordinances. His comrades objected to the proceedings and together they proceeded to "paint the town red." Warrants have been sworn out by Mayor Rye for the entire gang, and they will be arrested by the United States marshal and tried before the United States commissioners' court at this place.

Kittridge Appointed Senator.

Pierre, S. D., July 12.—Governor Harris has appointed A. B. Kittridge of Sioux Falls as senator to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Kyle. Albert B. Kittridge is a bachelor and is a native of New Hampshire, having been born in Cheshire county, March 26, 1861. He graduated from Yale in 1882 and in 1884 he entered the Yale law school and graduated in 1885, being admitted to the bar by the supreme court of Connecticut the same year. He removed to Sioux Falls, S. D., in 1885.

Governor Crane to Run Again.

Boston, June 12.—A meeting of the Republican state committee will be held this week to arrange details for the state convention this fall. There is no reason to believe that there will be any changes in the ticket. Governor Crane will be nominated for a third term, with Lieutenant Governor John L. Bates in the second place on the ticket, and the other state officers are all candidates for re-election.

Funeral of Prince Hohenlohe.

Schillingsfuerst, July 12.—The funeral services over the remains of Prince von Hohenlohe took place here Thursday and were attended by the Crown Prince Frederick William, representing Emperor William, and representatives of numerous German princes and public bodies. Dean Schmiedler delivered the funeral oration.

Failures for June.

New York, July 12.—Classified failure returns as reported to R. G. Dun & Co., for the month of June show failures heavier than in three preceding months and the same month in two preceding years, but prior to 1899 last month's liabilities would have been considered extremely light.

Mother Sienna Dead.

South Bend, Ind., June 12.—Mother May Sienna, aged 61, whose worldly name was Julia M. Murphy, died at St. Mary's Academy here. She was formerly a music teacher and had taught at Sacred Heart Academy, Fort Wayne, and at St. Mary's Academy, Austin, Tex.

Want Prayer for Rain.

Jefferson City, Mo. July 12.—Gov.

Dockery has received numerous petitions asking him to issue a proclamation setting a day of fasting and prayer for rain. It is stated that unless rain comes soon the failure of crops in Missouri will be the greatest since 1854.

Killing in Mississippi.

Anding Miss., July 12.—W. L. Nolan shot and killed A. C. Palmer here. The tragedy grew out of a quarrel. Both men were employed by the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley Railway company and were well known in this vicinity.

FAKE PUBLICATIONS.

They Will Be Excluded from the Mails as Second Class Matter.

Washington, July 12.—Postmaster General Smith has taken up the question of reform in second class mail matter with Attorney General Knox. These two cabinet members agree that there is sufficient warrant in existing law for the rigid enforcement of orders against fake publications which have been admitted to the mails as second class matter. It was at first thought that the postmaster general would issue an order setting forth the views of the department and denying second class rates to certain publications. It now seems probable that such will not be the course of the department.

Investigation has shown that there are so many publications which offer bonafide premiums that a sweeping order would be almost impossible of execution. Instead of laying down a broad rule, the department will conduct its investigations in relation to different publications and determine upon its action in each specific case.

It is explained at the postoffice department that it is not the intention to refuse second class matter to the legitimate publications. They have not constituted a burden upon the postal facilities of the country. The department's action will be against publications which make offers of premiums evidently of more value than the publication itself. The postoffice department does not wish to injure those persons that give value received for their subscription price, and yet operate premium schemes. It only aims to correct abuses which, for instance have developed in offers of merchandise worth $1 and probably a worthless publication whose subscription price is ostensibly $1.

Since known its inference with the department of justice the postmaster general feels sure of his ground and will begin barring certain prints from second class privileges within a week or 10 days. There is no disposition on the part of the department to act arbitrarily and all persons affected will have hearings if desired.

CALAMITY JANE.

That Noted Western Woman Given a Home in New York.

Anacosta, Mont., July 12.—Mrs. Josephine Winfield Brake of Buffalo, N. Y., authoress and Washington correspondent for a New York newspaper, has been in Montana for the past week searching for "Calamity Jane," the noted plains-woman. Thursday Mrs. Brake discovered Calamity Jane in the hut of a negro at Horr, near Livingston. The poor woman was suffering with fever and was broken in spirit. The scene that followed the offer of Mrs. Brake to take Calamity to her own home in Buffalo, where she could spend the remainder of her days in comfort was pathetic in the extreme and the noted frontiers-woman wept like a child.

She was in the Black Hills at the time of the killing of Wild Bill (William Hickok) and it is said that she it was who captured his murderer. She rendered valuable services to Custer, Reno, Egan and other Indian fighters. Of late years she has drifted about the state from place to place, making a livelihood as best she could. During the summer she sold pictures of herself to park tourists. During the past couple of years she has been ill a considerable portion of the time. The newspapers printed columns about her through means of which the attention of Gen. Egan and many other friends of the woman was called to the plight of their friend of early days. The result is that Mrs. Brake took the step mentioned. The two women have left Livingston for Buffalo.

Calamity Jane is about 50 years old. Her maiden name was Canary and she is said to be from New York. The last man she married was a drayman of Livingston named Burk.

RECEIVER'S REPORT.

The Assets of the Seventh National Bank Will Be About 80 Per Cent.

Washington, July 12.—Comptroller Dawes has received a preliminary report from the receiver of the Seventh National bank of New York City. The receiver states his estimate of the value of the assets of course are only approximate. He estimates the amount which finally can be recovered for the depositors from the assets including stockholders' assessments, at about 80 cents on the $1. The receiver states his estimate of the value of the Marquand collateral is less than that claimed by the directors of the bank and it is possible on this account final collections may be somewhat better than the receiver's estimate.

Comptroller Dawes stated that all the transactions connected with the advance of cash to the bank just prior to its failure are being carefully investigated by competent counsel and all legal rights of depositors will be protected in this connection. Comptroller Dawes has ordered an assessment of 100 per cent on $500,000 capital stock of the bank.

The report of the receiver contains no reference to any of the investigations now being made into the question of the existence of criminal infractions of the law. All these matters are under the charge of the department of justice.

SATURDAY, JULY 13, 1901.

Five hundred thousand dollars of assets of the endowment rank of the Knights of Pythias are reported to be in bad condition, and the rank is about $500,000 behind in the payment of death claims. The supreme lodge, in session at Chicago, is taking vigorous steps to set things right and prevent mismanagement in future.

The Laredo Times of July 5, reports the death of Mr. James Orfila, of Laredo, who was a brother of Mrs. B. Sbis of College. The Times says: Mr. Orfila lived in Laredo for more than twenty years and during that time has made a friend of every one with whom he came in contact in this city. He was a genial and warm-hearted man. He was never out of humor and had a kind word for everybody—high and low alike. He was liberal to a fault, and no man ever applied to him for a favor that it was not granted if it were in his power to do so. He will be missed by a circle of friends that was ever widening so long as he lived. If a man who was as charitable as his means allowed has any assurance of a kind remembrance at the hands of his Maker, then Jim Orfila will be one of the first to answer when those are called who are to be rewarded for the good deeds done in this life. May he rest in peace.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Col. L. L. Foster Strikes Oil.

The Galveston News' Beaumont reporter has the following to say about Col. L. L. Foster's good luck in being a witness of the coming in of the Columbia Oil Company's well at Beaumont:

A peculiar and pleasing incident about this well coming in is that Col. L. L. Foster, President of the A. & M. College, who is one of the promoters of the Columbia Oil company, was on the spot watching the operations when the oil came. Col. Foster was in the field for the purpose of locating another well which is to be drilled by Mr. Sturm, and with Mr. Sturm they were on the point of going over in the vicinity of Hogg-Swayne syndicate when Mr. Sturm suggested that they go over and watch them drill awhile, and it was while they were right at the well that it came. Of course it was no small pleasure for the Colonel to see the gusher, in which he is so largely interested, come into life.

The well referred to came in very unexpectedly, when the drill was down only 790 feet. The Eagle congratulates Col. Foster. There are few more deserving of good luck, or whose good fortune would please us more.

TWO OLD CONFEDERATES MEET.

Thirty-seven years ago G. W. Shaw, familiarly known as "Poke," and Batts Baker were comrades in the army. Both then were almost beardless youths. They enlisted early in the beginning of the war, fought gallantly for their country's honor and at the close of the greatest internecine strife known in the world's history, returned home to gather up, if possible, the shattered remnants of their property, and out of the wreck and devastation of war's fierce conflict begin life anew.

The war closed, these two separated and peace reigned supreme once more. The rattle of musketry and the booming of cannon was hushed. Poke Shaw settled in east Texas where for years he has been an honored citizen. Batts Baker went to Bryan. But the men who composed Company A, Eighth Georgia, scattered—none knew where the others were.

At the Memphis reunion Mr. Shaw went once more to hear the virtues of the "lost cause" extolled and to add his presence to the rapidly diminishing number of those who went out in the south's palmiest days to fight that their country might live. He met Col. Gray, of Georgia, a battle-scarred veteran, and the colonel of the regiment of which he and Batts Baker were members.

The past was brought up, Mr. Baker's name was mentioned, and Mr. Shaw gleaned the information for which he had been seeking for years—Batts Baker was alive and in Bryan, Texas. The sunlight of a great joy beamed in his countenance. He would meet and talk again with his old time comrade and partner; and he came to Hearn, intent upon that purpose. He communicated with "Batts" and "Batts" came up as fast as the train would carry him.

"Poke" was at the depot and he saw an elderly man alight, on whose head the snows of time had fallen, and instinctively "Poke" knew he was face to face with his old partner. Well, that meeting cannot be described by the pen of the writer, and as we heard the story from the lips of "Poke," our eyes were filled with moisture. Never were two children happier than they, and as they sat for hours at the Commercial hotel and lived again the past, recounted their adventures and exploits, told of their joys and sorrows and of the hardships they endured—one would sit entranced, thrilled!

Both these brave defenders of our "Sunny Southland" are on the declining slope of life with their faces turned toward the sunset, but may they live many more years and enjoy many more happy reunions, is our sincere wish.—Hearne Democrat.

TEXAS NEWS.

Burned to Death.

Llano, Tex., July 12.—A telephone message from Cherokee conveyed the information that Dr. W. M. Vaughn had been burned to death by the explosion of a kerosene lamp. Dr. Vaughn had retired, and feeling sleepy had drawn a table or a chair near the head of the bed to read. He fell asleep, the lamp still burning. About 12 o'clock his daughter was aroused by hearing him scream. When she got to his room the bed and the doctor's clothing were in flames. She got a bucket of water with which to put out the fire. In the meantime the doctor had run to the yard, where several men found him writhing in agony. He was taken to the house and physicians summoned, but they could only afford him little relief, as all the cuticle on his hands, arms, face, breast and legs was burned to a crisp. After suffering excruciating pain for nearly six hours died.

Smoke From the Ground.

Gainesville, Tex., July 12.—Val Peers, a merchant of this city, who has just returned from a trip to the western part of the country, reports that in the extreme west and just across the line there is considerable apprehension and much excitement among the inhabitants over the discovery of a dark smoke with an offensive odor resembling sulphur coming from the ground. The earth has large crevices in an area covering a quarter of an acre and from these the smoke comes. It is hot and quite dense at times and the people there are quite apprehensive, although Mr. Peers says there is no wild excitement.

Caught Between Two Cars.

Fort Worth, Tex., July 12.—R. M. Sauls, engineer and millwright for the Rosenbaum grain elevator, lost his life by an accident. He was on his way from one part of the elevator to the other and was crossing the track under the elevator, on which was a string of cars which were being unloaded. At the point where he attempted to cross the cars had been cut, and he was in the act of passing one of the cars was moved, striking him, crushing both legs and mashing his left arm to such an extent that he died about two hours after the accident happened.

WINE OF CARDUI

I take pleasure in writing a few lines in praise of your wonderful medicine, Wine of Cardui. It is the best medicine I ever heard of. I am thirty-six years old and have been sick all my life. I had a dozen doctors, but none of them did me any good. I have taken one bottle of Wine of Cardui and will take another with Black-Draught. I have been married six years and have a baby five years old. I had womb and kidney trouble. My monthly period was so bad that sometimes it came twice a month. I was too sick to do work for a family of three. I was in bed when I got the bottle of Wine of Cardui. Now I am up and can do most of my work. When I was sick I could not sleep at night. I sleep well at night now. A friend of mine advised me to use Black-Draught with Wine of Cardui.

NORWOOD.

There was an unusually large attendance at the A. O. U. W. meeting Thursday night when Robt. A. Wilson was initiated, the work being conducted by Deputy Grand Master Workman Will A. Hassell of Dallas, and beautifully exemplified with pictures. Vulcan lodge of Bryan was formerly the banner lodge of the state and it is hoped that it will attain that position again at no distant date.

The passenger train passing Bryan going south between 9 and 10 o'clock at night collided with a freight train south of Hockley Thursday night about midnight. Both engineers were hurt, though not badly, it is said, and also a brakeman. So far as could be learned, the passengers escaped without injury. There was considerable destruction of railroad property.

Dean Hearne, optician and jeweler, has fitted up a beautiful parlor in the Hall's drug store new stand, and has a place that is both beautiful and well suited to the business. Easy chairs are provided, nice pictures adorn the walls, and everything is as fine as could be wished. Mr. Hearne is a graduate of the St. Louis Watchmaking school, and is out after business in good shape.

The game of ball between Bryan and Calvert Thursday evening resulted in a score of 21 to 2 in favor of Calvert. No game was played yesterday.

THE TOMATO CROP.

Handsome Profit Realized on Sales at Jacksonville.

Jacksonville, Tex., July 8.—The bulk of the tomato crop has been gathered, which, notwithstanding the serious damage done by the recent hailstorm, has proved the most profitable crop ever grown in this section. In a radius of five miles, with Jacksonville as the center, more than 200 carloads have been shipped this season, besides large quantities sold to the canneries here. On an average the growers received approximately $750 per carload through the entire season, in many instances selling car lots on the track before ever being moved. The reporter obtained the following facts, which are only a fair sample of what many growers have done and which illustrates the individual profits received from this new industry:

J. A. Dun cultivated two acres and from the sale received $750.

W. N. Goodson cultivated six acres, from which he received $2,000. Mrs. R. L. Condray cultivated one acre with her own labor and derived over $300.

Monkess & Murry cultivated ten acres, which netted them $2,500.

As stated, this is only a fair sample of what many others have done. All of these are farmers and are also engaged in cultivating crops for home use and small cotton crops. Many of them are interested in growing peaches. It is useless to say that all of these people have money. The credit system is fast giving away and trade is highly stimulated at a heretofore dull season of the year. The advantages do not end here, as canneries, box and crate factories have been established, besides the extensive ice plant to furnish ice for shipping purposes.

This is the third year in which tomatoes have been successfully grown on an extensive scale, and the industry is rapidly growing. Next year the tomato industry will be increased to all convenient shipping points.

R. B. HUBBARD DEAD

The Ex-Governor Passes Away at His Home at Tyler.

TROUBLE OF KIDNEYS

He Held Many Positions of Honor in the State and Was Minister to Japan Under Cleveland's First Administration.

Tyler, Tex., July 12.—Ex-Governor Richard B. Hubbard died here at 1:10 o'clock this afternoon. He had been a sufferer of kidney trouble and that disease caused his demise.

Ex-Governor Hubbard was one of the noted men of Texas and held many places of trust. He was famous as an orator.

During the first administration of President Cleveland, he was appointed minister to Japan and represented the United States in an able manner there. Of late years he devoted his time to lecturing and writing.

Machinists Give up the Strike.

Cincinnati, July 12.—The machinists strike, organized May 20, and which involved from 5000 to 7000 employees in this city, has been practically declared off. Secret mass meetings of the strikers was held at which a formal report was made that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund had been exhausted the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement and many more will do so.

Race Around the World.

New York, July 12.—An international sailing race half way round the world will start from this city the first week in August. The racing ships are the Acme and the Brilliant. The Acme was built in Maine. The Brilliant was launched a few months ago at Glasgow. The vessels are the latest additions to the big sailing fleet of the Standard Oil company. They are loading at Bayonne, N. J., for Yokohama, Japan.

Masked Robber Killed.

Pottsville, Pa., July 12.—Four masked men entered the hotel of Peter Hoke at Yorkville, at midnight Thursday night and encountered the proprietor and Michael Ratzell and George A. Wachter, guests. During the fight which followed one of the robbers was shot and killed and Hoke wounded in the leg. The three remaining burglars escaped. The dead man has not been identified.

Chinese Body Boiled.

San Jose, Cal., July 12.—The body of Lee Wing, the Chinese murdered last March by highlanders, has been boiled in an iron cauldron by an order of the county authorities. This process was considered necessary in order to obtain 16 bullets fired into the man. They will be used as evidence in the trial. Look Lee is alleged to be one of the assassins.

Miners Strike.

Spokane, Wash., July 12.—The biggest strike in many years among the various miners of the northwest is on at Roseland and 1200 miners are idle. The strike affects the Lerol and other mines owned by British companies. The trouble started through the locking out of union smelter men at the Lerol smelter, North Port, Wash.

Was Well Fixed.

Fort Worth, Tex., July 12.—A letter received here from Ed Williams of the Twelfth cavalry, troop C, Fort Bliss, states that a sergeant who deserted on July 3 had when he left $15,000 in cash said to have been left him by a dead relative. The letter also states that it is believed he expressed $14,000 to Dallas from El Paso.

Osage Land Sold.

Topeka, July 12.—In the United States land office here the remaining 5000 acres of the Osage Indian reservation in Elk, Chautauqua, Greenwood, Cowley, Wilson and Woodson counties were sold. A ready sale for the lands was obtained for $1.25 per acre. A similar sale was conducted in Dodge City.

Clash Over Battle Celebration.

Belfast, July 12.—The celebration of the battle of the Boyne was marked by the customary collisions, but no serious trouble occurred, there being plenty of soldiers and police to control the factions.

The Columbia Won.

Balemans Point, July 12.—The Columbia won the yacht race here, the Constitution was second and the Independence third. The topmast of the Independence was carried away.

Pulled Down by a Bank.

Buffalo, July 12.—As a result, it is said, of the failure of the City National bank, the Schauer Shoe company has applied for the appointment of a receiver.

Block of Buildings Burn.

Mountain View, O. T., July 12.—Fire early this morning destroyed an entire block here. Loss about $65,000, about 15 business houses burned out.

Hanged for Attempted Assault.

Norfolk, Va., July 12.—Edward Payne, a negro, was hanged at Pulaski for attempted criminal assault upon Miss Duncan, a white woman.

Races Declared Off.

Lewport, Ky., July 12.—Managers of the Newport racing track here have decided to declare off all further races until Oct. 1.

BECOMING ALARMING.

Drouth in Kansas and Missouri Cut Down Production of Crops.

Chicago, July 12.—Advises are that the heat and drought in the southwest is unbroken. It is said the damage outside of Kansas and Missouri is comparatively slight, but unless relief comes within the next 10 days the corn crop situation will approach a calamity.

A message from Topeka, Kas., says prospects are for a crop of but 50,000,000 bushels of corn, although last year's crop was 163,000,000 and that of previous year 277,000,000 bushels. The loss of hay and potatoes also is great, second only to the loss of corn. It is estimated the farmers of Kansas and Missouri have already lost $50,000,000 by the torridity and drought.

The straits in which the corn crop to said to be situated is reflected in the course of prices of that cereal on the board of trade. September corn is quoted up to 52 1/2 cents or 9 cents higher than the price one month ago. September oats sell at 33 cents or 7 cents higher than a month ago.

Thirty Years' Record Gone.

St. Louis, July 12.—According to local weather officials there is no relief from the intense heat in sight. In parts of Missouri and southern Illinois where the crops are being literally burned up the temperature the past two days has ranged as high as 110, the records of 30 years have been broken.

Warm in London.

London, July 12.—The hot wave is becoming more tropical. Londoners were not prepared for it and consequently suffering greatly. Official thermometers at 10 o'clock this morning registered from 85 to 87 in the shade, but ordinary thermometers showed several degrees higher. There were many fakes, prostrations and faintings in the street which kept the ambulances busy.

TIED OF THE WAR.

Report Say the British Are Making Offers of Peace to the Boers.

London, July 12.—Referring to the government's admission that they had information respecting the shooting of British at Vlakfontein so long back as June 11, the Daily Mail, whose correspondent was the first to make the news public, states that this is only a small portion of the policy of concealment now being carried on. It professes to have abundant evidence that almost the whole theater of war is in a much worse condition than the public is allowed to know. The state of affairs in Cape Colony in particular are said to be of the most serious nature, due almost entirely to the belief among the Dutch that constant efforts of the British to propitiate them, prove they are tired of the war. While the government is constantly saying in public the war will be fought to a finish, they are, says the Daily Mail, continually making offers of peace to the Boers.

REFINED PETROLEUM.

Shipments to Europe Never as Frequent and Heavy as Now.

Philadelphia, July 12.—Shipments of refined petroleum from this port to Europe were never before as heavy or as frequent as they have been within the last 10 days. From the first of the year up to last Saturday 175,350,883 gallons had been shipped abroad, against 135,826,718 gallons for the corresponding period of last year, an increase of 39,524,165 gallons.

Local shippers argue that these large shipments of oil are proof of the superiority of the American article.

There are now in port waiting to be loaded as well as en route to Europe a great fleet of steam and sailing craft with a capacity of many millions of gallons.

Vessel's Narrow Escape.

Queenstown, July 12.—The Cork Examiner prints a sensational story of the marvellous escape of a four masted passenger steamer, westward bound, from being wrecked off Fasnet Rocks, late Thursday evening. The Examiner says the fog lifted in the nick of time, to save the vessel from a fearful disaster. Light keepers at Fasnet were horrified to see a steamer east running, full on little Fasnet. Fasnet immediately discharged an alarm gun, signalling urgent danger. Before the latter could be slowed up or her engines reversed, she had apparently touched little Fasnet rock, as he was seen to list to starboard and then to port. Onlookers noticed a great excitement on board the liner but she was apparently uninjured as she proceeded.

Servant Girls' Union.

Chicago, July 12.—Servant girls and working women generally have taken the preliminary steps for the formation of the union they have been wishing for so long. Thursday night the Working Women's Union of America was organized under the direction of the International Union Labor league. Fixed hours of work, more freedom and better conditions generally are the objects sought by the Working Women's Union of America. Another meeting will be held next week at which it is expected the organization will be perfected.

National Educational Association.

Detroit, July 12.—The last day of the National Educational Association convention had the smallest audience of the week. "Higher Education," was the topic of the morning, and papers were read by President Charles F. Thwing of the Western Reserve University, Cleveland; Robert B. Fulton president of the University of Mississippi and Hon. W. T. Harris, national commissioner of education.
